

Sunday I offered
my Mass in thanksgiving for all the graces God has given me and my Sisters through you.

I shall ever strive to be most closely united to you in your work for souls by my prayer and sacrifice.
I will always be your co-missionary.

May God Himself
be to you my thanksgiving.

Your child in Christ,
Sister Mary Christine

Reverend Father Aloysius

Dear Father,

Some time ago when I was reading St. Bernard's book on the Love of God, I ran across a quotation from an "Epistle of Prayer" in the notes in the back of the book. This quotation was so beautiful that I sent a copy of it to Frances. She liked it very much. Sister Mary Catherine also likes it, so I thought perhaps you would like to enjoy it with us. It seems to me that it expresses everything that I desire to do. If I am faithful, I am sure God will give me this chaste love. He knows how much I desire to love Him.

The quotation from Cardinal Newman is one which I like very much and which I gave to my parents and the Sisters at the time of my perpetual vows.
I would like to give you one too, Father.

I want to thank you for all you have done for me, Father. God has given me many graces through you and I shall ever be most grateful.

Rev. dear Father:

Our camping period is keeping us quite busy but not too busy to write you a little word to thank you for all you have done for me and to assure you of my special prayers for you, particularly during the coming week when you will leave Mokence and take up your new obedience. May our dear Lord grant you strength and courage to make the sacrifices He is asking of you generously and enlighten you in the great work which is ahead of you, in forming the beautiful souls confided to your care in the spirit of your Holy Founder. What a great responsibility will be yours - but what a great privilege also. Rest assured of my daily prayers for you in your new work. As I told you, I have been offering one hour in the morning, one in the afternoon, and my guardian angel offers one hour during the night for your intentions. The morning hour is eleven to twelve, the afternoon, five to six, and the night, eleven to twelve. These hours are offered in union with the three persons of the Blessed Trinity and the various choirs of angels. I shall keep up this practice and also remember you daily at Holy Mass

Dear Father Alaysius:

I would greatly appreciate your saying three low masses for my oldest brother Leon and his little family. He has a very heavy cross to bear in the mental illness of his poor little wife and a sickly baby. Recall?
He was recommended to you last year.

His sentiments are not only Christian but truly saintly. I think he is very dear to our Lord. I count on your fervent prayers especially through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass that he may ever bear courageously and lovingly this special mark of God's love. He is an altar Christus in the world. Thus, has the Sacred Heart described him. He himself gave the stipends with the request for masses.

May God reward your charity and bless abundantly your new field of endeavor.

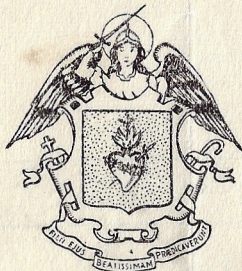

With the assurance of our continued prayers for one who has been both Father and friend and benefactor, I am

Most respectfully and gratefully yours - J. M. J.
Sr. St. Thomas S.S.C.M.

Please! May I count on your prayers for my own needs. I am undergoing a prolonged and serious trial. I do want to give Christ all, willingly, cheerfully, lovingly but the Spirit is willing, the flesh weak.

Thank you, Father

Muy amado Padre:

Comienzo la presente saludando muy afectuosamente a su R. y felicitándole, en cuanto es dable, por el oficio que la Sueprioridad le ha dado, confiando en Dios y en el Corazón de María le concederán los auxilios de su gracia para el buen desempeño de su cargo, que si bien tiene grande responsabilidad, también tiene grande mérito y recompensa delante de Dios.

Le recomiendo mucho a V.R. a mis pobres novicios mexicanos, que como no saben el inglés le darán más trabajo que los otros y tendrá que tener más paciencia con ellos, Esta Provincia no podrá menos de reconocer su mayor empeño con ellos y le acompañarán nuestras oraciones para que Dios le dé salud para suportar el trabajo y solicitud para sus encomendados.

Con esta ocasión me es muy grato ponerme a su disposición y soy su afmo. in C.M.qbsm.
